

Dover Historical Commission
December 2, 2008

A meeting of the Dover Historical Commission was called to order on December 2, 2008 at 7:08.

Present were Richard Eells, Jane Moore, Janet Comiskey-Giannini, Kay Guild, Tom Johnson and Charlotte Surgenor and Paul Tedesco.

Minutes were approved for November 10, 2008

Jane is going to speak with Juli in the Accounting Department and put in our budget for 2009.

Mr Frank Stufano of 45 Willow St. came in to explain why he and his family want a demolition permit for his Garage. He plans to turn it into an "In-law Apartment". The commission discussed and will visit the site at 8:00 am on Saturday December 6th and will take a preliminary vote.

Jane Moore talked to David Ramsey and found out that the Willow Bridge is structurally unsound and state will pay – towns of Dover and Needham will not pay. The Commission will visit the bridge after their visit to 45 Willow St. Tom will write a letter to the Stantec Consulting Services Inc.

No further information on 6 Farm St.

A discussion about the Colonial Road – 6 houses will be put in and all houses have been sold.

Paul will generate a list of plaques that have been put on houses in Dover.

Meeting adjourned 8:07 pm. Our next meeting – January 6, 2009

Respectfully Submitted,

Charlotte Surgenor
Secretary
