

DOVER HISTORICAL COMMISSION

A meeting of the Dover Historical Commission was called to order on October 7, 2008

Present were Richard Eells, Kay Guild, Tom Johnson, Paul Tedesco and Charlotte Surgenor
Absent – Jane Moore

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 pm.

Richard opened the meeting by saying that Sam Glidden called inquiring status of their house. After some discussion the Commission decided that 112 Centre Street's demolition permit be released. Paul moved and Tom seconded that the Demolition Permit be released. It was voted 5-0 in favor of the motion.

Richard said that he had no news to report on 6 Farm St.

Stantec Consulting Services Inc in Manchester NH sent the Commission a letter about the bridge on Willow Street near Mill St. and some possible work that is going to be done to the bridge. Paul recommended that the Commission contact the Town Engineer and Paul offered to try and have him come to our next meeting.

The Commission had an official vote for 20 Taylor Lane. Paul moved and Tom seconded that 20 Taylor Lane should not be considered historically significant and the demolition permit should be issued.

The September minutes approved.

Charlotte will talk to Carol Lisbon about finding a 7th member of the Commission.

Given that our next meeting is scheduled for November 11th which is an official holiday Charlotte is going to see if we can meet on November 10th.

The meeting was adjourned at 7: 50

Respectfully submitted.

Charlotte Surgenor
Secretary
