

DOVER CEMETERY COMMISSIONERS MINUTES
MONDAY, MARCH 23, 2009

Meeting opened at 7:10 p.m.

Attendance – Bill Herd, Jon Wolff and Carol Jackman

MINUTES of the February 2, 2008 meeting were approved.

CITIZENS COMMENTS: None

NEW BUSINESS –

Lawn quotes were received and it was SO VOTED to hire Strawberry Hill Landscaping to do the work at a cost of $7,870.

There were a couple of headstones that were damaged in the winter and one will be fixed by Rusty and the Highway Department will pay for repair of the other one.

It was reported that Eastern Propane put a new tank in on February 24, 2009.

Summer help was discussed and it was determined that Rusty would do the interviewing and the hiring. This seemed appropriate as he is the one that works with the person. The person is to work from June through August from 7:30 am to 3:00 pm.

A letter was received from the Dover Library saying they would like to have a couple of trees planted at the Hovey grave from the Hovey account which comes under their jurisdiction. SO VOTED.

OLD BUSINESS

The quote for the new historical sign was received and it was SO VOTED to spend $900 from the perpetual care account. It was also SO VOTED to have the new entrance/exit, etc. signs installed at a cost of $1,995; this includes four granite posts. This too would be paid from the perpetual care account.

Bill Herd gave an updated report on the water display for the back of the cemetery. Carol suggested the possibility of have a trust fund setup for the care of the display.

Rusty reported he would be out for half a day on Friday, March 27, 2009 and that he would be on vacation April 10, 2009.

Meeting closed at 8:00 pm. Next meeting will be Monday, May 11, 2009 at 6:30 pm.
