

Conservation Commission Meeting Minutes
September 21, 2011

Members Attending: Kate Faulkner, Tim Holiner, Rick Weden, John Sullivan, Candace McCann, Sandy Sheble-Hall, John Sheehan, Larry Clawson, Tim Chorey, and Agent George Giunta.

Enforcement Orders:

7 Willow Street

Present: Richard Giannini and Janet Comiskey-Giannini, owners of 7 Willow Street. Trees fell on their property due to a severe storm. They removed the trees which were within the 100 ft buffer zone of the wetlands. The Commission advised in the future to call the office before doing any work in the buffer zone. They agreed to do that in the future.

59 Main Street, Dover Farms

A report was made to the Commission of loam piles placed next to a field adjacent to the wetlands and an enforcement order was issued. The owner had been instructed to install a silt fence. Agent Giunta reported the loam piles have since been moved.

The Commission made a motion to issue an enforcement order requiring the replacement of the fencing according to the approved plan dated 9-23-2006, to be replaced within the next 2 weeks and silt fence around piles of loam. Failure to do so will result in a fine of $350 per day.

Mr. Austin arrived late to the hearing at 7:55 pm. The Commission informed him of their previous motion. Mr. Austin showed the Commission on the approved plan dated 9-23-2006 where he had the piles of loam, and also the location of the fence. He agreed to put the fence back up. The Commission asked him in the future to notify the office before he proceeds with any work.

Discussion:

105 Centre Street- Agent Giunta updated the Commission on the tree replanting. He said the trees have been placed according to the plan.

56 Main Street, apple tree replanting-Mr. Marconi, owner of 56 Main Street requested an extension of his replanting plan to June 1, 2012 as he is having trouble locating an apple tree this time of year. The Commission agreed and granted Mr. Marconi 's request for extension to June 1, 2012.
