

DOVER CEMETERY COMMISSIONERS MINUTES
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2012

Meeting opened at 6:00 p.m. in the meeting room of the Town Garage.

Attendance – Pope Hoffman, Bill Herd, and Carol Jackman

MINUTES OF NOVEMBER 1, 2012 MEETING were approved.

CITIZENS COMMENTS – Seaman family were in attendance to pick up a copy of the letter from Dover Farms regarding the electrical wires that pass over Jill Seaman's home. It was suggested they get in touch with Dedham Savings, as the new owners of Dover Farms, regarding the work that needs to be completed as promised in the letter from Michael Hanson. Also the Seaman headstone was approved as originally submitted.

NEW BUSINESS:-

One application for purchase of cemetery lot was signed for Roger G and Dorothy A Mark of 30 Brookfield Rd., Dover to purchase Lot 62, Block G, for three cremations only.

The Capitol Budget was then discussed and reported on that Bill Herd and Rusty had submitted paperwork for a new gator. The Warrant Committee still needed additional information and Carol would submit it the next day via the computer. All budget information now must be submitted by computer.

OLD BUSINESS

With regards to the revision of guidelines for Highland Cemetery, the first installment was handed out to the committee to be taken home for review. The completion of the guidelines would be distributed after the budget process is over and the annual book of reports is ready for the Town Book of Reports.

Meeting closed at 8:00 p.m. Next meeting would be November 27, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. at the Town Garage.

Attachments to these minutes are on file in the Cemetery Office located in the Town Garage.
