THROUGH THE GARDEN DOOR

A striking but unusual specimen tree to add to your landscape is Seven-Son Flower (Heptacodium miconides). This is one of the few trees that blooms in summer and continues into fall. I have one growing in my yard for the past 10 years. Pale, creamy white, fragrant flowers emerge in August and last into September. The real show occurs in October when the calyces turn reddish – the effect is spectacular and lasts until the first frost. The bark exfoliates to expose a light brown under bark. The tree likes full sun and will grow to 20’ high. Insects ignore this tree including the winter moth. When in bloom, it is full of buzzing bees. While the bees are busy and totally ignore me as I walk by, this might not be the tree for you if you are allergic to bee stings.

MEET OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS
(Each month we will feature one of our Board Members for you to meet. Our members work extremely hard and are dedicated to serving the needs of Dover’s Seniors)

MEET PHIL McCHESNEY

Phil was brought up in New Jersey. Upon high school graduation he went to Perdue University and majored in Electrical engineering. Following college he enlisted in the Air Force which was during the Korean War. He flew 16 combat missions during his time in the service. After leaving the service he worked for Raytheon and continued there until his retirement. He married shortly after leaving the service and moved to Dover in 1976. He raised two boys and two girls and currently has one granddaughter. His wife passed away in 2005 but Phil remains in Dover. His hobby is playing Bridge. He enjoys his involvement with the COA Board and has been active in sub-committees.
As the election heats up we are most likely going to receive numerous emails containing “true” information about each candidate and every issue. They will be flamboyant, sometimes fearful and all too often false.

When you receive any email which purports to be delivering important information ask yourself these questions:
Is there a date on the article or statement? Some emails seem to be current but have been hobbling around the Internet for years.
Do you know who compiled the information: No author means no authenticity!
Does it contain visuals? Videos and pictures are easy to edit. They can and have been changed in a variety of ways – different background, add/delete individuals, change postures, etc. Seeing is no longer believing.
Does it say the facts have been checked out on Snopes or another verification source? Don’t believe it; check it out for yourself.

You can verify information easily at any of the following sites:

www.Snopes.com  Barbara and David Mikkelson created this website in 1995 to determine the truth and explain the background of the many legends, hoaxes and rumors which circulate the world via email. Since its creation, Snopes has garnered respect from colleagues and users, received 2 Webby awards for Web Excellence and attracts over 6 million visitors each month.

www.Politifact.com  This is a project of the Tampa Bay Times newspaper whose reporters and editors fact-check statements by politicians, lobbyists and interest groups. They rate these statements on their “Truth-O-Meter” which has 6 categories ranging from “True” (the statement is accurate and there is nothing significant missing) to “Pants On Fire”

Great first parent
(By Bill Cosby)

Whenever your kids are out of control, you can take comfort from the thought that even God’s omnipotence did not extend to his kids.

After creating Heaven and Earth, God created Adam and Eve. And the first thing He said to them was: “Don’t.”

"Don’t what?”, Adam replied.

"Don’t eat the forbidden fruit.”

"Forbidden fruit? Really? Where is it?”

"It’s over there,” said God, wondering why He hadn’t stopped after making the elephants.

A few minutes later God saw the kids having an apple break and He was angry.

"Didn’t I tell you not to eat that fruit?” the First Parent asked.

"Uh huh.” Adam replied.

"Then why did you?”

"I dunno,” Adam answered.

God’s punishment was that Adam and Eve should have children of their own.

Thus the pattern was set and it has never changed. But there is reassurance in this story.

If you have persistently and lovingly tried to give them wisdom and they haven’t taken it, don’t be hard on yourself.

If God had trouble handling children, what makes you think it would be a piece of cake for you?
