ON THE LIGHT SIDE

- Today a man knocked on my door and asked for a small donation towards the local swimming pool. I gave him a glass of water.
- I changed my password to "incorrect". So whenever I forget what it is the computer will say "Your password is incorrect".
- I find it ironic that the colors red, white, and blue stand for freedom until they are flashing behind you.
- When an employment application asks who is to be notified in case of emergency, I always write, "A very good doctor".
- A recent study has found that women who carry a little extra weight live longer than the men who mention it.
- I wondered why the frisbee was getting bigger, and then it hit me.
- For anyone who think a woman's place is in the kitchen, remember that's where the knives are kept.
- If practice makes perfect, and nobody's perfect, why practice?
- I asked God for a bike, but I know God doesn't work that way. So I stole a bike and asked for forgiveness.
- What do you call a sheep with no legs? A cloud.
- If at first you don't succeed, destroy all evidence that you tried.

Fallopia Japonica “Variegata”
Japanese Fleece Flower

This herbaceous perennial forms a large upright clump up to five feet tall and four feet wide. The leaves are creamy white splashed with dark green speckles and are heart shaped. In the spring, the growth is coral pink with reddish stems. In midsummer, it is covered with white flowers which bees love. This makes a striking foliage plant in bouquets. It will grow in sun or part shade and is deer resistant. Fleece flower is a cousin of knotweed but does not spread. I consider this plant one of the most spectacular in my garden.
