THROUGH THE GARDEN DOOR
Lespedeza thunbergii (Bush Clover)
This is an old fashioned beauty that time has forgot. The flowering stems are so heavy they arch over producing a fountain-like effect. It is 6’ to 9’ high and wide. But in our climate, it is killed back to the ground after the first hard frost. The leaves are a bluish green with rosey-purplish, pea-shaped flowers in late August through September. This is a shrub for the back of the border as it easily covers surrounding plants. Once planted it is difficult to transplant as the roots reach deep into the ground. These shrubs must be purchased through a catalog as our local nurseries do not carry it.

By the fall of 1621 only half of the Pilgrims, who had sailed on the Mayflower, survived. The survivors, thankful to be alive, decided to give a thanksgiving feast.

- Thanksgiving Day is celebrated on the second Monday in October in Canada.
- The Plymouth Pilgrims were the first to celebrate the Thanksgiving.
- The Pilgrims arrived in North America in December 1620.
- The Pilgrims sailed across the Atlantic Ocean to reach North America.
- The Pilgrims sailed on the ship, which was known by the name of 'Mayflower'.
- They celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day in the fall of 1621.
- They celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day at Plymouth, Massachusetts.
- The drink that the Puritans brought with them in the Mayflower was the beer.
- The Wampanoag Indians were the people who taught the Pilgrims how to cultivate the land.
- The Pilgrim leader, Governor William Bradford, had organized the first Thanksgiving feast in the year 1621 and invited the neighboring Wampanoag Indians also to the feast.
- The first Thanksgiving feast was held in the presence of around ninety Wampanoag Indians and the Wampanoag chief, Massasoit, was also invited there.
- The first Thanksgiving celebration lasted three days.
- President George Washington issued the first national Thanksgiving Day Proclamation in the year 1789 and again in 1795.
- The state of New York officially made Thanksgiving Day an annual custom in 1817.
- Sarah Josepha Hale, an editor with a magazine, started a Thanksgiving campaign in 1827 and it was result of her efforts that in 1863 Thanksgiving was observed as a day for national thanksgiving and prayer.
- Abraham Lincoln issued a 'Thanksgiving Proclamation' on third October 1863 and officially set aside the last Thursday of November as the national day for Thanksgiving. Whereas earlier the presidents used to make an annual proclamation to specify the day when Thanksgiving was to be held.
- President Franklin D. Roosevelt restored Thursday before last of November as Thanksgiving Day in the year 1939. He did so to make the Christmas shopping season longer and thus stimulate the economy of the state.
- Congress passed an official proclamation in 1941 and declared that now onwards Thanksgiving will be observed as a legal holiday on the fourth Thursday of November every year.

ON THE LIGHT SIDE

Quotes taken from Actual Federal Employee Performance Evaluations.

- Since my last report, this employee has reached rock bottom and has started to dig.
- I would not allow this employee to breed.
- This employee is not really so much of a has-been, but more of a definite won’t be.
- Works well when under constant supervision and cornered like a rat in a trap.
- When she opens her mouth, it seems that it is only to change feet.
- He would be out of his depth in a parking lot puddle.
- He sets low personal standards and then consistently fails to achieve them.
- This employee is depriving a village somewhere of an idiot.
- This employee should go far, and the sooner he starts, the better.
- Got a full 6-pack, but lacks the plastic thing to hold it all together.
- He would argue with a sign post.
- He brings a lot of joy whenever he leaves the room.
- When his IQ reaches 50, he should sell.
- A photographic memory but with the lens cover glued on.
- A prime candidate for natural de-selection.
- Donated his brain to science before he was done using it.
- Gates are down, the lights are flashing, but the train isn’t coming.
- Has two brains: one is lost and the other is out looking for it.
- If you gave him a penny for his thoughts, you would get change.
- One neuron short of a synapse.
- Takes him 2 hours to watch 60 minutes.
- The wheel is turning, but the hamster is dead.
VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!
Do you have a few hours to share with the COA? The COA is looking for volunteers as office greeters, to answer phones and/or help with clerical work. If you have other skills you would like to share (baking, gardening, decorating, etc.) or are a student in need of community service hours, please email Nancy Simms at coavolunteer@doverma.org or call 508-315-5734. Thank you!
