The minutes were approved for the meetings March 5, 2013.

Old Business;

Benjamin Caryl by Steve Marini —. Press Releases are going to be done in the Dover Weekly and Dover Sherborn Free Press.

Paul reported that he had agreed to write a Book Review for Steve Marini in an academic format that could also be used to promote the book.

Dover Cable is doing an interview with Steve Marini at the Caryl House on April 23, 2013.

Jane stated that she received a check for $520.00 from the Dover Historical Society for the number of books that they have sold.

It was moved to vote to accept the money from the Dover Historical Society and to place it in the Historical Commission Gift account. The vote was unanimous to accept the money. The Town Accountant requested a copy of the minutes stating the acceptance of the monies.

Maps—Paul asked that the 6 Maps of Dover that were framed by the Commission and loaned to the library in the 1990's be returned and displayed in the Town Clerk's office. Jane stated she will go to the library and request that these maps be returned and displayed in the Town Clerk's office

Peabody Sundial. The Sundial layout at the library was discussed as to the format and how it should be placed at the library. Paul stated that this might be an Eagle Scout project. He would contact the Boys Scouts. There is some welding repair work that needs to be done on the sculpture.

Discussion of the wording on a marker that would identify the sculpture as Amelia Peabody's .

Historical Marker—Paul stated that a Historical Marker was placed on the Tom and Helen McGill House on Main Street. The price for the marker was $75.00.

New Business:

None at this time.

Some discussion as if we should make T-shirts of the Dover Damon or another post card to go along with the other postcard for either Dover Days or Old Home Day. People thought they would think about it for awhile.

Other Business:

Meeting adjourned at 7:55 PM
